

The Eighth Annual Meeting of the Slavic Linguistics Society,
Szczecin University (Poland), 25-27 October 2013

Friday, 25 October

8:30-9:00

Breakfast/coffee

9:00-9:30

Welcome and opening remarks.

Address by prof. Catherine Rudin, Chair of the Slavic Linguistics Society

Address by prof. Jacek Witkoś, Poznań University, Faculty of English

Address by Dean Ewa Komorowska, Institute of Slavic Languages,
Szczecin University

Address by prof. Tomasz Górski, Rector of Szczecin University

9:30-10:30

Pleenary Speaker: Jacek Witkoś (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań):
“PASSIVES, IMPERSONALS AND CONTROL PATTERNS IN POLISH AND ENGLISH”

10:30-10:45

Coffee break

10:45-12:45

Panel A: Morphology

Catherine Rudin (Wayne State College), – “Sorting out -to and -što: Bulgarian and Macedonian relative markers”.

Adrian Czardybon (University of Dusseldorf), – “Variation in the Explicit Marking of Definiteness - Standard Polish ten vs. Upper Silesian tyń.”

Lidia Federica Mazzitelli (University of Bremen), – “Belarusian modals of necessity: music', pavinen and mec' in comparison”.

Barbara Sonnenhause (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universitaet, Muenchen), – “The narrative potential of the Balkan Slavic perfect: a historical perspective”.

10:45-12:45

Panel B: History of Slavic languages

Anton Zimmerling (Moscow State University), – “Clitic clusters and discourse marker ti in Old Slavic”.

Katarzyna Miechowicz-Mathiasen (Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań), – “On Sentential Agreement with Numeral Phrase Subjects in 15th-17th c. Polish”.

Sorin Paliga (University of Bucharest) – An Introduction to the comparative study of the Slavic languages. Some new(er) views on an old problem: Romanian-Slavic relations.

Magdalena Derwojedowa, Danuta Skowrońska, Witold Kieraś and Robert Wołosz (Warsaw University), – “Automatic morphological analysis and old lexis: modern tools and Polish of the 2nd half of 19. Century”.

10:45-12:45

Panel C: Syntax

Egbert Fortuin (Leiden University), – “Subordinate clause prolepsis in Russian”.

Jana Willer-Gold (University of Zagreb) and Steven Franks (Indiana University), – “Agreement Strategies with Conjoined Subjects in Croatian”.

Anna Bondaruk (John Paul II Catholic University, Lublin), – “Clausal subjects and to-omission with nominal predicates in Polish”.

Anna Malicka-Kleparska (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin) – “Root based or derivationist morpho-syntax: Polish valency morphology against other morphological systems”

12:45-13:00

Coffee break

13:00-14.30

Panel D: Reflexive verbs

Małgorzata Krzek (Newcastle University), – “On some properties of the Polish constructions with the SIE̋ particle”.

Maria Ovsjannikova and Sergey Say (Russian Academy of Sciences, St. Petersburg), – “Case-marking patterns in Russian reflexive verbs of emotion: decline of the Instrumental”.

Katarzyna Janic (University of Lyon 2), – “A rare type of reflexive use in Slavonic languages”.

13:00-14.30

Panel E: Passive structures

Jim Lavine (Bucknell University, Pennsylvania), - “The New Passive in Icelandic is neither like Polish nor Ukrainian”.

Jurij Kniazev () – “Past passive participles as a source of progressive-like constructions in Russian and beyond”.

Svetlana Sokolova (University of Tromsø), – “Aspectual Triplets Revisited: Russian Primary and Secondary Imperfectives and Metaphor”.

13:00-14.30

Panel F: Negation and affixation

Frank Gladney (University of Illinois, Urbana Champaign), – “On Verbal Prefixation and Suffixation”.

Olga Steriopolo (ZAS, Berlin), – “Homophonous Suffixes: A Case Study of Russian”.

Elena Paducheva (Moscow, Russian Academy of Science), – “Measure phrases and the scope of negation”.

14:30-15:30 Lunch break

15:30-16:30 Plenary Speaker: Olga Molchanova (Szczecin University):
“СТРАТИГРАФИЯ ТОПОНИМОВ; РУССКИЕ
ГЕОГРАФИЧЕСКИЕ ИМЕНА НА ТЕРРИТОРИИ ГОРНОГО
АЛТАЯ (СИБИРЬ)”

16:30-16:45 Coffee break

16:45-18:15 Panel G: Semantics

Bożena Cetnarowska (University of Silesia, Katowice), – “Pre-head and post-head placement of adjectives in Polish and their semantic and pragmatic interpretation”.

Alina Israeli (American University, Washington), – “Dative-infinitive БИ constructions in Russian. Taxonomy and semantics”.

Ludmila Pöppel and Dmitrij Dobrovolskij (University of Stockholm), - “Russian focus constructions and their English equivalents”.

16:45-18:15 Panel H: Phonetics

Sławomir Zdziebko (John Paul II Catholic University, Lublin), – “Polish palatalization as an interface phenomenon”.

Marc L. Greenberg (University of Kansas) and Zbyněk Holub (Slezská univerzita, Opava), - “A Fixed Star is Born: Fixed Pitch-Stress in South-West Bohemia”.

Sylwester Jaworski (Szczecin University) and Edward Gillian (State Vocational School, Gorzów Wlkp.), – “A comparison of the obstruentised rhotic of Polish and the syllabic rhotic of Croatian”.

16:45-18:15 Panel I: Grammatical categories

Marija Runic (University of Padua), – “The definite article in an articleless language”.

Jens Nørgård-Sørensen (University of Copenhagen), - “Animacy as the dominant category of Russian nouns”.

Saturday, 26 October

8:30-9:00 Breakfast coffee

9:00-10:00 Plenary Speaker: Marzena Żygis (ZAS & Humbolt University, Berlin):
“EMPIRICAL INSIGHTS INTO PROSODY FROM A SEGMENTAL PERSPECTIVE”

10:00-10:15 Coffee break

10:15-12:15 Panel J: Syntax

Steven Franks (Indiana University), - “Cased PRO in Slavic: From GB to Minimalism and Back Again”.

Vrinda Chidambaram (University of California, Riverside), - “On Obligatory Fixed Reference and Split Antecedents: How Resumptive and Object-Doubling Pronouns Are (and Are Not) Different From Ordinary Pronouns”.

Peter Kosta (Potsdam University), – “Negation Islands in Comparative Perspective: The Case of which-clauses and as-clauses Revisited”.

William Sullivan (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin) and David Bogdan (Ehime University, Matsuyama), – “Tense, aspect and no man’s land’.

10:15-12:15 Panel K: Borrowings in Slavic languages

Tomas Dubeda (Charles University in Prague) and Veronika Štěpánová (Czech Academy of Sciences), – “Pronunciation of loanwords in Czech: The eight principles of adaptation”.

Jan Patrick Zeller (Carl von Ossietzky Universität, Oldenburg), – “German loan words in Polish in the light of a semantic classification and semantic classifications in the light of German loan words in Polish”.

Martin Havlik and Lucie Jilkova – “Pronunciation of Polish and Hungarian proper names in Czech: Phonological approximation or spelling pronunciation?”

Zuzanna Fuchs (Harvard University), – “On Gender and an Unusual Path of Analogical Extension: From Animacy to Borrowings in Polish”.

12:15-12:30 Coffee break

12:30-14:00 Panel L: Standard languages and regional varieties

Krzysztof Borowski (), –The Less, The Better? Molise Croatian and its Users 100 Years After Their Idiom’s Prophesized Extinction.

Grant Lundberg (Brigham Young University), – Dialect Leveling: The Slovene Standard Language and Regional Varieties.

Alina Sz wajczuk (Szczecin University), – “Kashubian and Irish. The issue of legal and actual status”.

12:30-14:00

Panel M: Semantics

Alla Nedashkivska (University of Alberta, Edmonton), – “Linguistic Practices of Pride and Profit: the Tourist Landscape of L’viv, Ukraine”.

Sylvia Liseling-Nilsson (Stockholm University), – “The Emotionality of Interpersonal Communication and the Translation of the verb of speech”.

Agnieszka Patejuk and Adam Przepiórkowski (Polish Academy of Sciences), – “On classes of conjuncts in lexical-semantic coordination in Polish”.

12:30-14:00

Panel N: Russian panel: Semantics and pragmatics

Ewa Komorowska (Szczecin University), – “Побудительные речевые акты в польском и русском языках: прагмалингвистический подход”.

Nezrin Samedova (Azerbaijan University of Languages, Baku), – “О семантике членов парадигм типа прыгать / прыгнуть”.

Oksana Orlenko (Ivan Franko Lviv National University), – “Концептуальная интеграция в развитии семантики предлогов (на примере предлога на в украинском и сербском языках)”.

14:00-15:00

Lunch break

15:00-16:00

Plenary Speaker: Adam Przepiórkowski (Polish Academy of Sciences):
“LINGUISTICS FOR LANGUAGE TECHNOLOGIES AND LANGUAGE TECHNOLOGIES FOR LINGUISTICS”

16:00-16:15

Coffee break

16:15-17.45

Panel O: Phonetics and phonology

Aleš Bican (Masaryk University, Brno), – “Nuclearity of /r/ and /l/ in Czech”.

Frank Gladney (University of Illinois, Urbana Champaign) and Jagoda Bruni (University of Stuttgart), – “Does Polish Have Affricate Clusters?”.

Sylwester Jaworski (Szczecin University), – “Patterns of variation of Polish /r/”.

16:15-17.45

Panel P: Corpus-based studies

Anja Savina and Elena Yagunova (Saint-Petersburg State University), – “Study of idioms in female detective story”.

Olga Rudolf (University of Jena), – “A corpus-based study of strategies of human impersonal reference in Russian”.

Veronika Richtarcikova (Pompeu Fabra University, Barcelona), – "Epistemic Indefinites in Slovak: A corpus survey and the Haspelmath map".

16:15-17.45

Panel Q: Russian panel

Vladislava Warditz (Potsdam University), – “Социоллингвистические модели и описание субстандартных стратов в славянских языках”.

Иlja Itkin and Svetlana Pereverzeva (Russian State University for the Humanities, Moscow), – "НОРМАЛИЗАЦИЯ" ФОНОЛОГИЧЕСКОЙ СТРУКТУРЫ РУССКИХ ЗВУКОПОДРАЖАНИЙ ПРИ ОБРАЗОВАНИИ ПРОИЗВОДНЫХ ГЛАГОЛОВ”.

Svitlana Martinek (Ivan Franko Lviv National University), – “Концептуализация зрительного восприятия в польском, русском и украинском языках”.

19:30

Conference dinner – Villa “West Ende”

Sunday, 27 October

8:30-9:00 Breakfast/coffee

9:00-10:00 Plenary Speaker: Danuta Stanulewicz (University of Gdańsk):
“THE POLISH AND KASHUBIAN COLOUR LEXICONS”

10:00-11:30 Panel R: Morpho-syntax

Ewelina Mokrosz (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin), - “Exhaustive to in Polish – a Minimalist account”.

Małgorzata Szajbel-Keck (University of California, Berkeley), - “Small Clauses, Relators and Secondary Predication”.

Irine Chachanidze (Tsereteli State University, Georgia), - “Diachronic Analysis of Feminizing Formants in Russian and Georgian Languages”.

10:00-11:30 Panel S: First and second language acquisition

Elena Kulinich, Phaedra Royle and Daniel Valois (University of Montreal), – “Russian verb allomorphy in language acquisition”.

Jacopo Saturno (Università degli Studi di Bergamo), – “Case ending perception in initial Polish L2 as a function of frequency, transparency and word order”.

Ekaterina Rakhilina and Anastasia Marushkina (National Research University Higher School of Economics,), – “Lexical mistakes in heritage Russian”.

11:30-11:45 Coffee break

11:45-14:00 Panel T: Semantics

Edward Gillian (State Vocational School, Gorzów Wlkp.), – “Differences in encoding motion in English and Polish: difficulties in translating motion between these two languages”.

Maria Brenda (Szczecin University), – “English spatial prepositions over and above and their Polish equivalents”.

11:45-14:00 Panel U: Russian panel II

Anna Ohrimovich and Agnieszka Szlachta (Szczecin University), – “Речевой акт совета в русском и польском языках. Прагмалингвистический аспект”.

Agnieszka Krzanowska (Szczecin University), – “Рекламный слоганы в польском и русском языках”.

Thank you